COPY AND RESTORATION

Preserve Your Family History

Have you ever found an old family photograph that you absolutely love...but find it in damaged condition? Let us restore your treasure so that you can keep it protected for years to come. Have copies made so that each family member will have something to pass down to future generations. And archive it so that you can have more immeasurable prints made later if needed.

As a portrait studio we know the value placed on old photographs of past family members. We believe that the importance of being able to pass down a cherished photograph to future generations is immeasurable.

Restoring damaged or faded photographs is truly an art, and takes the skill of an expert. Bring us your photographs and we will create a new file from which to work. (We will never do any work on your original photograph.) We will then have one of our artists closely examine your photograph and determine the best method for repairing the damage. When the damage has been repaired and your prints have been created, we will archive your images and keep them on file at the studio for 3 months at no charge. We would strongly recommend that you purchase a CD with your archived image on it, so that you will have the restored photograph should you ever need more printed. Your original photograph will be returned to you with your completed order.

Our goal is to preserve as much original detail from your photograph as possible while mending the areas that have been damaged. Please note that we will do everything that we can to restore your photographs, but in some cases it may not be possible to repair the damage. This is dependent on the type of and extent of damage to the original photograph. If our artists feel that they cannot repair the damage or significantly restore the image, we will call you to let you know and there will be no cost to you.

If you have any questions at all, please call us or stop by the studio for more information.
